Rainbow Rehabilitation Centers of Michigan Mourn the Death of CEO Harold "Buzz" Wilson

YPSILANTI, Michigan July 8, 2008 — Harold (Buzz) Wilson owner and CEO of Rainbow Rehabilitations Centers, who led with greatness and grace since 1982, died Monday, July 7, 2008 at his home in Leland Michigan.

"Buzz's death is a great loss to Rainbow, and the many in the traumatic brain injury community who knew and loved him," said Bill Buccalo, President of Rainbow Rehabilitation Centers. "Buzz dedicated the past 25 years to the development of Rainbow as an outstanding organization that cares for survivors of brain injury. He was focused on the people, the service and the culture. He pushed to provide the best care and believed there were no limits to providing quality rehabilitation. Buzz had an incredible impact on the lives and development of so many."

The Rainbow executive committee stated, "As we mourn the loss of a great leader and friend, we are committed to keeping his legacy alive. Buzz made a great investment in Rainbow and has prepared the company to carry on. He was loved and will be deeply missed.

The professionals at Rainbow expressed their heartfelt sympathy to his wife Barb, sons Charlie, Ted, and Richard as well as his extended family.
